

Test Document for Use Cases

Ross Barnie

Figure 1: Actors of the system

1 Actors

Figure 1 illustrates the relationships between actor roles in the system. A short summary of the actors is given below:

User A user of the system

Advertiser A user who can advertise internships

Organisation An advertiser belonging to an organisation outwith the University

Academic An advertiser who is an academic at the University

Student A user who is a Computing Science student at the University

SE/ESE Student A student studying Software Engineering or Electronics and Software Engineering

Staff A user who is a member of staff at the University

Course Coordinator A type of Staff who acts as the bridge between Advertisers and Students

2 Use Cases

This section describes the required functionality for the Internship Management System as X groups of related use cases. The core use cases for the system are:

- Common Utilities (Section X)
 - Search for Advert
 - Search for User
 - ...
- Posting Advertisements (Section X)
 - Submit advertisement (by Advertiser) for review (by Course Coordinator)
 - Review advertisement (by Course Coordinator)
 - Comment advertisement (by Course Coordinator)
 - Publish advertisement (by Course Coordinator)
- Notify Student of Successful Application (Section X)
 - Notify system of successful application (by Advertiser)
 - Notify Student